Outing of Y. M. C. A. Boys.

The boys of the Young Men's Christian Association gymnasium, and those of the Bible classes yesterday enjoyed a delightful outing at Forest-Hill Park. They left Seventh and Main streets on the electricars at 9:30 o'clock in charge or Assistant-Secretary Stubbs and Professor Schatzel. At Forest Hill they played basketball and base-ball, and enjoyed themselves as only a boy knows how. Of course, they ate their lunches under the shade of the trees of the park, for the affair would not have been a genuine pienic without that most important matter being attended to. The boys returned in the afternoon, much pleased with their trip.

were old-fashioned instruments of torture long since abandoned, but there is a tormenter who still continues to agonize the joints, nuscles, and nerves of many of us. The rheumatism, that inveterate foe to daily and nightly comfort, may be conquered by the timely and steady use of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which likewise eradicates neuralgia, billous, malarial, bowel, stomach, and nerve complaints.

Obituary.

On Sunday, April-12th, at 5 P. M., Mrs.
ANNIB BELLE RAWLINGS, daughter of Captain Z. H. Rawlings, of Vesuvius, Va., passed quietly into eternity, and her hody was laid to rest to-day in the beautiful cemetery of the Greenville Baptist church.

tiful cemetery of the december.

She was about 20 years of age, and nineteen months from the very day and hour of her marriage to Mr. Richard H. Rawlings she fell asleep, in Jesus. She leaves a sorrowing husband and an infant daughter 5 months old, besides the immediate members of her father's family, and while all are shrouded in gloom over their loss, in calm resignation they can say "Thy will be done," feeling confident that all is well with her soul.

During her nine days' iliness with fatal pneumonia, her Christian light beamed with undimmed splendor—a joy and an inspiration to her friends—and many were the sweet, touching scenes of her sick-room. At one time she said: "The blood of Legick many large and Lam not affected. and many were the sweet, touching scenes of her sick-room. At one time she said: "The blood of Jesus is my hope, and I am not afraid to die." Again: The singing at her request of "Thy Will Be Done," and her own heartfelt prayer, in which, with folded hands, she poured out her soul to God, made a lasting impress on those around. Repeated occurrences like these were a sweet prophecy of her peaceful entrance into that "home where changes never come."

An unusually long procession followed her remains from Vesuvius to Greenville, a distance of seven miles, where the funeral services were conducted by Rev. B. H. Dement, of Lexington, assisted by Rev. A. H. Hamilton, of Midway.

Rev. H. W. Tribble, of Charlottesville, brother-in-law of the deceased, was present with the family group.

Many friends mourn her departure, but feel that Christ is dearer, and Heaven is nearer, on account of her presence there. "What I do, thou knowest not now, but thou, shalt know hereafter."

Of course you know them. Their praises have been sung by Jegens and Jurgens' customers for the past six years, and Jurgens' customers have been their most tensive and far-reaching advertisements. We haven't found it necessary to put off something newon our customers every season or two, but every year our sales have largely increased, owing to e phenomenal success of the Alaska. The Alaska is made in all sizes, suitable for private families, greers, butchers, &c., and its special features are its centre-top draft, insuring the greatest possible entilation and purification of the air in the provision chamber; its removable waste-pipe and phon, and its charcoal filling. Rival makers have tried their best to copy the first two features, wich are patented. For the last they put in something just as good, but a good deal cheaper. As furniture house we say the Alaska has the very best construction. If you want the best buy the aska.
